

Continued from Page One.

Mrs. Buron S. Adams entertained Wed-needs) afternoon at a bridge tea at ber-hems. Eightsemth and Park Road. The decorations were in pink. Twalve tables were used for the game. At 5 o'clock refreshments were served. Mrs. William K. Ambrobe, Mrs. E. M. Miller, and Mrs. Alexander G. Bentley presiding it the tea table. Punch was served by Miss. Kate Fillebrown.

On Friday, May 3, at the Belasco Thea,

On Friday, May I, at the Belasco Theater, the Junior committees of the Working Boys Home will give a theatrical performance, consisting of two plays. The first will be a short sketch of life in the Philippines, "Maria Delores," by Capt. Granville Fortescus, a touching stary of the love of a Philippine girl for an American officer. The second will be Gilbert's alever consely. "Secause She Loved Him Bo," the regular weekly offering of the Bouterfeld Flayers.

The Junior committee of the Working Boys Home consists of Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, president: Mrs. Theodorn Noyee, first vice president; Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenör, Second vice president; Miss Hidegarde Nagel, secretary; Mas Hopein Johnston, assistant secretary; Mrs. Victer Cushmun, Mrs. Genaville Fortseue, Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mrs. Venaviller Cushmun, Mrs. Genaville Fortseue, Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mrs. Victer Cushmun, Mrs. Genaville Fortseue, Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mrs. Cary Langhenne, Mrs. Arthur Lee, and Mrs. Walter Wilcox.

Mrs. Walter Wilcox.

Miss Blanchs Fish entertained the Sans Stouch Card Club on Thursday svening. April 25, at her home, 120 Elseventh Street Southeant. Five new members were received into the club, and the meeting proved to be one of the most enthusiastic said enjoyable for some time, which was only a fitting tribute to the charming young henders. After a hotly contested hour and a half at five hundred, it was found that Miss Steadman and Mr. Carrell had again made the highest scores, and they were awarded appropriate prisss in taken of their superior playing. Refreshments were served, followed by muse, and the meeting broke up to gather again on next Thurgday residing with Miss Catherine Deberty, at 12 Fourth Street Southeast.

The British Ambassador and Mra. Bryce left Washington on Friday evening, en roote to Ban Francisco, from where they sail on May 1, for Australia. They will spend some time there gathers ing malerial for the book, which the Ambassador is writing, and afterward will go to their home in England for the remaider of the summer.

Miss Helen Taft left Washington yesterday afternoon for Fairfax, Va., where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wades worth's horseback party to-insorrow, which started yesterday for the first lap of the journey to Mrs. Wadsworth's country place, the Geneseo Valley, N. Thus is an annual party which Mrs. Wadsworth entertained about this time each year, when several of the younges number in the party. This year the personnel of her company will change at different stages of the trip, which will continue throughout the month of May. The President's daughter, who is an enturiasite equestrienne, will accompany Mrs. Wadsworth for the first week, leaving the party after its arrival at Virginia Hot Springs, about May 6. Miss Allen, daughter of Ma), and Mrs. Henry T. Allen, U. S. A., of Washington, and Miss Josephine Mather, of Philacelphia, are smong those who will later take Miss Taft's place for a time. Some of the neer who will be included in the party at the various stages are Capt. Frank McCoy, U. S. A., who left the Capital with Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth to-day. Lieut. Byron A. Long, U. S. N., and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. A., side at the White House, and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. A., side at the White House, and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. A., side at the White House, and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. A., side at the White House, and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. A., side at the White House, and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. M., and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. N., and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. N., and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. N., and Lieut, Edward St. John Grebie, Jr. U. S. N., and Lieut, Edward St. S. N., of the May-hower.

Mies Gladys Mayer, of the Airy View Apartment, is visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, of Baltimore.

Mrs. A. D. Frank, of Ballimore, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. Rich, of t Washington during the week to Mrs. B. Herman and daughter, Miss Florence, returned to the city after a visit in Atlantic City.

The Spanish Minister and Mme. Riano Avotue, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, and prior to that the home of the Swedish Minister and Mns. Lagerurants. They have taken the house for five years.

Mrs. Charles Isham, of New York, is spending some time in Washington, and is occupying the home of her parents, the former Secretary of War and Mrs. Robert T. Limcoln. As Miss Mary Lincoln, she was a great belie in Washington during her father's regime.

Mrs. William L. Marshall, wife of Brig. Gen. Marshall, U. S. A., will re-turn to Weakington shortly from At-lantic City, where she has spent the past several weeks. Mrs. Marshall, who accompanied her mother, has already re-current.

Mrs. M. Gunst, who has been visitin her son, Sydney Gunst, of Belmont Stree has returned to her home in Richmon

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Neumeyer have re-urred to their bone in the Stafford for spending the past week in Atlantic

Brig Gen. Henry G. Sharpe, U. S. A., went to New York on Thursday, to join Mrs. Sharpe, who has been the guest of her neice, Miss Dahlgren.

York, from where they will sail on Thursday on the Adriatic for England to spend the summer months.

maughter, Mrs. John N. Toung, of Ohio.

Miss Hilds Jecobi, of the Cultbourne, has as her guest Miss Heasis Reynor, of New Jersey, are guest at the Grafton Mrs. and Mrs. Hen Held, who have been Mrs. Bon Held, who have been Mrs. Bon Held, who have been Mrs. Hen Held, who have been Mrs. Hen Held, who have been Mrs. Hen Held, who have been Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. David Goldsmith, of 1228 Seventh Street Northwest, will be at boms to-day from 7 to 18.

Mrs. Montgomery Sicard and Miss Ellinor Sicard, wife and daughter of the late Rear Admiral Sicard, U. S. N., who usually spend their winters in New York, have been in Washington for the past few weeks, and are guests at 1256 R Street.

R Street.

Gen. W. W. Wotherspoon left Washington yesterday for his new post at Atlanta, Ga. The general will be joined later by Mrs. Wotherspoon and their son, Mr. Alexander Wotherspoon.

Annette Goldsmith, of Calvert Birsel, has bome in Richmond.

Miss Edith Baer, of Baltimore, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Miss Edith Baer, of Baltimore, has returned to her home siter a few days in the city the guest of Miss Hortense Byriawaki.

Mrs. Whitmell Pugh Tunstall, who has been the guest of her parents, Commodore and Mrs. George M. Peters, left a washington recently to join her husband in Norfolk, va., to where Mr. Tunstall is an interest of the motor accident, in which he was estimated and the fermer has transferred his business from Chizago. Mrs. Wood.

Mrs. Whitmell Pugh Tunstall, who has transferred his business from Chizago. Mrs. Wood.

Judge Bradford, of Wilmington, has returned to his home in control and mrs. Charles Williams have strumed from Atlantic City.

Miss Maddox has been visiting his sisters, the Misses Trapier, of Q Street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tome Wood and two little sons, who have been on a visit to make the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the motor accident, in which he was estimately sold intelligence of the moto wife of the Secretary wife of the Secretary

terday, to call on Tuesday for Europe.

Viscountess Chinda, wife of the Japa
ness Ambassador, refurned to Washing, to yesterday from a short visit in Pittsburg.

Col. and Mrs. Symons sailed yesterday on the Kroonland, to spend the summer ahread. They will visit their som at Oxford, after being Joised in Paris by their daughtef, Miss Margaretta, and another brother, who have been abroad soms time.

The British Ambassador
tryce left Washing.

home to-day from T to 30.

Mrs. John P. Wisser, wife of Col. Phase John P. Wisser, wife of Col. Phasey and Mms. Vassilleff will go over to Phase Phase John P. Washington, left for her home yesterday.

her home resterday.

Mrs. Howard S. Nyman, who spent the winter at St. Augustine, Fis., with her youngest child, has returned to this city and potned her husband at their new home. ISS Streenth Street.

Rear Admiral Admiral Admiral Admiral and Mrs. Van Reypen have gone to New York to meet their have gone to New York to meet their her youngest child, has returned to this city and potned her husband at their new home. ISS Streenth Street.

Rear Admiral Admiral Admiral Admiral Page 1 Admiral New York and New Y

Rear Admiral Thomas H. Bisvens.

Rear Admiral Thomas H. Bisvens.

N., retired and Mrs. Duniar, who apont in New York after a trip to Panama. The Washington.

They will come to Washington shorily.

Mrs. N. Wolberg amounces the engagement of her daughter. Rebecca, to Mrs. Henry S. Patterson, of New York, and her brother, Ames Lawrence Hopkins, of Pout Birmann, of South Boston, Va.

Miss Hermins Bennet, of Norfolk, Va.

Miss Hermine Bennet, of Norfelk, Va., Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, is the guest of Miss Lorraine Herman, of the Beacon.

Mrs. Oscar Steinfeld was a recent visitor in Washington.

GEORGETOWN.

Miss Edith Miller, of Frederick, who has been one of the wedding party of Miss Helen Frey, returned Thursday evening to her bome.

later by Mrs. Wotherspoon and their son, Mr. Alexander Wotherspoon.

Miss Irens Galest, who has been spending the past few weeks with Miss Anneste Goldsmith, of Calvert Street, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Miss Eden Morck, who has been visiting her grandmether, Mrs. Keferstein, at Supper Wednesday evening. Miss Kemp, of Trappe, Md. is the guest of Mrs. Orndorff.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Weaver and two sons, of Front Royal, and Miss Weaver, of Boston, were the guests of Mrs. Mrs. Watth Park Mrs. Mrs. William Taylor, who has been visiting her grandmether, Mrs. Keferstein, at supper Wednesday evening. Mrs. and Mrs. H. H. Weaver and two ones, of Front Royal, and Miss Weaver, of Boston, were the guests of Mrs. Mrs. William Taylor, who has been visiting her grandmether, Mrs. Keferstein, at supper Wednesday evening.

Mr. Davig Rittenhouse is spending the week-end with friends in Hallimore. Mrs. George Banssey Breaty, of Hern-ton, Va. Durmerty Muss Edna Mindleton. a visiting her home in Thirtieth Street.

Mrs. Charles Newman left a week age for a month's visit to an old schoolmate Mrs. W. W. Johnson, in Union, S. C. Mrs. Eugene A. Ryrnes was hosters a a musical Thursday afternoon, entertain dent.

The young ladies of Madison School ar busily engaged in rehearsing, unser in able directions of Miss Nourse, for tw short plays to be given at the Playhous on the swening of May 8.

it in New Tork after a trip to Panama.

If they will come to Washington shortly.

Mrs. Henry B. Patterson, of New York, and her brother, Ames Lawrence Hopkins, and her brother, Ames Lawrence Hopkins, of Houston, Tex., are spending tome time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Cocar Stainfeld was a recent visitor in Washington.

Miss Rena Beliwarts and Miss Carrie Bass, of Ballimore, were the week-mig guests of Railimore, were the week-mig guests of Greends in tows.

Mrs. Davies of Atlanta, Ga., were the wisting in the first of the state of the party at the theater, last week, chaperoned by Masselames Lang and Dix.

Mr. Philip McElhone, who spent a week with bin factors who spent a week with bin factors.

Mesonance Lang and Dix.

Mr. Philip McElhons, who spent a week with his family recently, returned to Old Mexico last Tuesday.

Mrs. McGregor Dorsett, after spending a few days with Miss Murdock, has returned to her home.

Mrs. M. J. Barron entertained "The Sixteen" at supper Wednesday evening.

Miss Miss Emily Schanek, of New York, who have been the guests of Miss Catherine Denison, of Hillyer Place, for a few, days, have returned to their homes.

Miss Buth Parker went over to Baltimore yesterday to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenblutt, who spent last week in this city have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenblutt, who spent last week in this city have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Samuels, who were married recently in New York, were in Washington during the pant week.

Mr. and Mrs. A Stenen returned to Washington from Aliantic City, where they etotyped at the Hofel Rudolf for three weeks.

Mr. John C. Koodrup, of Cambridge The Country Club was the Schen of the Washington Aliantic City, where they etotyped at the Hofel Rudolf for three weeks.

Mr. Pank Charles of the Wishing Rrs. R. M. Merrian in St. Paul.

Mrs. Henry L. Underwood, from Knoxylle, Then, is visiting for miss of the Washington Aliantic City, where they etotyped at the Hofel Rudolf for three weeks.

Mrs. Henry L. Underwood, from Knoxylle, Then, is visiting for miss of the Washington Aliantic City, where they etotyped at the Hofel Rudolf for three weeks.

Mrs. Henry L. Underwood, from Knoxylle, Then, is visiting for miss of the Washington Ad City gave a dinner to the retiring president, Mrs. Waldo C. Hibbs and Mr. Louis C. Wilson lett yesterday morning for the Chamber of Commisere to the Washington Ad City gave a dinner to the retiring president, Mrs. Waldo C. Hibbs and Mr. Louis C. Wilson lett yesterday morning for the Chamber of Commisere to the Washington the dinner informal speeches the converging to the Chamber of Chamber of

THE OUTER A GARMENT SHOP 808 TO 814 ELEVENTH STREET

.

Dry air cold storage for furs—with insurance against loss or damage by moth, fire or theft. Moderate charges.

We Announce

A Special Sale of Dresses Taken From Our Regular Stock

At One-third Less Than Value.

$16.75

$19.75

$24.75

For Dresses Heretofore up to $45.00.

300 Dresses For All Occasions

in This Sale.

Suit Department.

We announce new arrivals in Tailored Suits of silk, white and navy serge, mohair, linen, terry cloth and ratine. Entirely new models, including Norfolk and belted Styles. Very good values at $15.00

$25.00

$30.00

Closing Out

200 Tallored Suits,

Broken Range of Sizes, at $14.75

$19.75

$27.50

Heretofore up to $45.00.

Very Smart Models.

merce.
There will be an interesting lecture to-morrow evening in the Library by Rev. J. W. Austin, for the benefit of the Rectors' Aid Society, His subject will be 'The Earthquake in Jamaica."

The Home and School Association of hery Chase enjoyed an illustrated lec-ture in the Library Fiday evening, giv-n by Miss Sypes, taking for her sub-ret "Rowers and Planta and the Beau-fying of the Garden."

Jet. Flowers and Planta and the Seali-Last evening the Chevy Chase Library was bright with orange and purple dec-orations, the colors of the Thi Signa Tau Club, which gave a very pretty dance to its friends among the younger set. The chaperones were Mrs. W. L. Martier and Mrs. Farrar. The hostesses of the evening were Miss Mildred Shee-maker. Miss Eleanor Garner, Miss Dor-rie Sannemann, Miss Anna Mactier, Miss Johan Farrar, and Miss Marjoris Van Dyn. Light refreshments were served. Dr. H. B. Riley entertained Priday evening at the hume of his sister, Mrs. R. E. Shoemaker, at five hundred. His quarts numbered sixteen.

nominerus sixteest. The Thirteest Club gave a small dance. Friday evening in the Library. The chaperones were Mrs. W. G. Carler, Mrs. Frederick Van Dyne, Mrs. James L. Parzons, Mrs. W. H. Herren, and Mrs. Randolph D. Hopkins.

HYATTSVILLE.

The Afternoon Five Hundred Club was entertained Tuesday by Mrs. O. H. Zantzinger at her residence in Wine Avenue, extended. Mrs. Edwin Gibson won the first prize, and Mrs. S. M. Peach the second. The guests' prize was won by Miss Minnis Shew. Preceding the games refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin G. Tingley and son, Eghert Fuller Tingley, left Satur-day evening for a visit to Mr. Tingley's relatives in Marion, Ind. They will re-main for six weeks.

Miss Jesephine Roberts, of near Bright-seat, Prince George County, has been visiting Miss Marguerite Clagett. Mrs. Robert Bowle, of Annapolis, has been visiting Mrs. William B. Clagett, at "Navajo," near Upper Mariboro.

Thursday in honor of Mrs. Bryan ler and Miss Ambier, of Obio. Mine Susic E. Clagett entertained a number of friends at bridge whist Thurs-day aftermoon at her home, Keckuk near Upper Mariboro.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Zantzinger, Wine Avenue, extended, have been visiting friends in Washington during the past week. Mise Carrie Kelton, of Wilmington, Del., has returned after a visit with friends in Mount Hainier.

Miss Minnie Chew, of Upper Maribore has returned after visiting her slater Mrs. O. B. Zantzinger, Wine Avenue axtended.

The Misses Johnstone, of Baltimore, have returned after a visit of several days to friends here.

The Misses Delia and Frances Hudden, of Indianapolis, ind., have been visiting relatives in the lower section of Prince George County.

At Palm Beach.

From Judge.
"Beems to me it's awfully stupid here," remarked the transplanted Broadwayits.
"Onl' you rake up a little extrement"
"Well, I flight let you have your bill," engrested the hotel manager.

ROCKVILLE.

It Miss Myrtle Naomi Heit, of Woodside, and Eugene E. Blevena, of Woodside, and Eugene E. Blevena, of Woodside, and Eugene E. Blevena, of Chavy Chase.

Mrs. Robert C. Wardeld, Mrs. David H. Warfield and Mrs. wittiam W. Weissen, of Chavy Chase.

Mrs. Robert C. Wardeld, Mrs. David H. Warfield and Mrs. wittiam W. Weissen, of Chavy Chase.

Mrs. Robert C. Wardeld, Mrs. David H. Warfield and Mrs. Wittiam W. Weissen, of Chavy Chase.

Mrs. White, of the Biapitst Church, the ceremony taking place at the residence of the minister. They were unaccompanied Other cospies married in Bock With during the North College of the Mrs. Heward Willingham, of Westpolis, Tren.

Mrs. Hough Magruder, of Baltimoce, has been a vintor at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Prettyman, here.

Col. Spencer C. Jones after spending the winter in New Orleans at the of his daughter.

the winter in New Orleans at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. Hachard Faivey, as has been this custom each year for a fong while, has returned to his home here.

Mrs. Harry L. Poss and little daughter here have returned to their home in Rockville after spending the winter in Rockville afte

FREE TO YOU-MY SISTER Free to You and Every Sister Bur-

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and writetell any enferer that this lags 'nestest really areas's around the states, and makes women's tell any enferer that this lags 'nestest really areas's around the states, and makes women's tell and the states of t Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. A.

IMPORTANT HOSTESS IN SMART SOCIETY.

VISCOUNTESS D'AZY.

Wife of the Naval Attache of the French Embaser to the Contume She Wore at Her Fancy Dress Ball a

- Name Aces.